Join the San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus for their most powerful event of the year: The Pride Concert! This is an electrifying production that celebrates and uplifts our Trans and Nonbinary communities through the power of music. Featuring songs that champion resilience, identity, and belonging—including works by Grammy-nominated songwriter Justin Tranter, who will appear live onstage—this performance weaves together anthems of strength, defiance, and joy. From rallying cries for change to heartfelt reflections on authenticity, each piece affirms the beauty of self-expression and the power of standing together. In a time when trans and nonbinary voices are being silenced, this concert is a bold declaration: We see you, we hear you, we sing you.
