ICONS CONNECT. LIVE ON STAGE.

Experience the ultimate “High Fidelity” evening at the Curran. Join us for a special screening of the iconic film starring John Cusack, followed by an engaging post-show conversation with the star himself. Dive into the world of music and self-discovery as Cusack shares insights and a behind-the-scenes look into his Golden Globe-nominated role, and takes audience questions. Discover rare vinyl gems before and after the show with Noisepop-curated local vendor booths, and connect with fellow music enthusiasts—all in the heart of this unique event that combines cinema, conversation, and community.

“High Fidelity” is a classic rom-com based on the novel written by Nick Hornby, debuting in 2000. Cusack plays the main character Rob Gordon, a record store owner and obsessive list-maker. Talking to the camera, rattling off his top five lists, Cusack’s character made every music nerd and vinyl junky feel like there had finally been a romance movie made for them.
