

ONE HALLELUJAH TOUR

Fisher Theatre • Friday, April 5

Tasha Cobbs Leonard is an award-winning American gospel singer and songwriter, known for her powerful vocals and soul-stirring performances. Born on July 7, 1981, in Jesup, Georgia, she developed a passion for music at an early age, growing up in a family with a strong Christian foundation.

Tasha Cobbs rose to prominence with her breakthrough single, “Break Every Chain,” released in 2012. The song, featured on her major-label debut album “Grace,” quickly became a gospel anthem and garnered widespread acclaim. Her soulful voice and the impactful message of the song resonated with audiences, earning her a Grammy Award for Best Gospel/Contemporary Christian Music Performance.

Following the success of “Grace,” Tasha Cobbs Leonard continued to make significant contributions to the gospel music scene. She released albums such as “One Place Live” (2015) and “Heart. Passion. Pursuit.” (2017), which further solidified her reputation as a leading figure in contemporary gospel music. The latter album featured collaborations with artists like Nicki Minaj, adding a unique dimension to her musical expression. Beyond her recording career, Tasha Cobbs Leonard is known for her dynamic and anointed worship leading. Her live performances are characterized by a deep connection with the spiritual aspects of her music, creating an atmosphere of worship that transcends genres.

Tasha Cobbs Leonard’s impact extends beyond the music industry; she is also recognized for her philanthropic efforts and community outreach. Her authenticity, passion for worship, and commitment to making a positive difference have endeared her to a diverse audience. With numerous accolades and a growing discography, Tasha Cobbs Leonard continues to inspire and uplift through her soulful gospel music.
