The Witcher in Concert is a celebration of the dark fantasy role-playing game's incredible music and emotional storytelling, all translated into a gripping live performance on stage. Featuring an ensemble orchestra and cutting-edge visuals, each concert merges stunning cinematics and gameplay with tracks specially arranged for the occasion under the supervision of The Witcher 3: Wild Hunt co-composer Marcin Przybyłowicz.

Polish folk metal band Percival Schuffenbach, the co-composers of the game's soundtrack and contributors to several beloved songs, will also perform alongside the orchestra, faithfully bringing to life an epic sonic journey.

The Witcher in Concert is created in collaboration with GEA Live and RoadCo Entertainment, the producers of live entertainment events in more than 40 countries worldwide. For more information, the full list of tour dates, and to sign up to receive updates through the official newsletter, visit The Witcher in Concert website at www.thewitcher.com/concert.
