Web update 1: 06 November 2024

Please note the following update(s) to your copy of the IF7 study text:

Chapter 5, section C2, page 5/12

The first paragraph should now read:

Establishing the needs and demands of the corporate purchaser is of equal importance to establishing those for the individual purchaser. Each corporate entity will have different objectives and, in many cases, this will be dictated by their contractual and legislative requirements. An effective corporate fact-find is essential to offer either insured or self-funded solutions to the corporate purchaser.
