- Unit W01 is also available in Arabic (W02) and in Simplified Chinese (W01).
- Unit WH1 is also available in Traditional Chinese (HGT). Both WH1 and HGT are available to candidates in Hong Kong only.
- Unit WCE is also available in Arabic (WCA) and Traditional Chinese (WCT).
- Unit WUE is also available in Arabic (WUA) and Traditional Chinese (WUT).
- Unit 590 is also available in Arabic (595). Both 590 and 595 will soon be withdrawn from new enrolments. Final exam sessions will be in September 2022 and March 2023.

This is the framework for our insurance qualification units.

They are grouped according to their difficulty, from level 2 through to level 7.

Depending on the qualification you want to achieve, you'll need to study a number of these units. Some of our qualifications require just one unit while others require several.

Study and assessment key

Assessment methods vary depending on the unit's level and subject matter. Each unit within the framework has been assigned an icon, to identify the assessment method from the options below.

Multiple choice question (MCQ) exam

Study is based on a specified enrolment period, from 01 January–31 December for UK exams, and 01 May–30 April for non-UK exams. MCQ exams can be sat at UK and international online exam centres, subject to availability, or via remote invigilation.

Written exam

Study is based on a 12 month enrolment period from the date of purchase. Most exams are on-screen written exams and some may be available by remote invigilation.

Mixed assessment

Study is based on an 18 month enrolment period from the date of purchase. Candidates must pass a coursework assignment within the first six months and a MCQ exam within 18 months.

Coursework assignments

Study is based on a 12 month enrolment period from the date of purchase. Candidates must pass three written assignments, each typically 2,000-3,000 words.

Dissertation

Study is based on an 18 month enrolment period from the date of purchase. Candidates must submit a dissertation, typically 10,000-11,000 words, on an agreed subject.
