CII Level 4 Diploma in Regulated Financial Planning Qualification specification

Thank you for considering study with the CII. This specification summarises the purpose and the content of this qualification to help you decide whether it meets your learning needs.

The qualifications section of the CII website, unit syllabus documents and CII policies provide further detail on the features summarised here.

Qualification overview

The CII Level 4 Diploma in Regulated Financial Planning is a qualification that develops and assesses the FCA's required technical knowledge and skills for advising on retail investments.

Who is this qualification for?

This qualification is particularly appropriate for:

- Anyone seeking to give retail investment advice, in particular those who don't hold additional CII credits counting towards completion of the Diploma in Financial Planning
- Paraplanners, technical consultants and those in financial planning support roles.

Benefits for individuals and employers

The CII Level 4 Diploma in Regulated Financial Planning meets the FCA's qualification requirements for retail investment advisers.

This will enable you to meet the qualification requirements to practise in this area and expand your areas of expertise in your professional practice.

Summary of content

The CII Level 4 Diploma in Regulated Financial Planning meets the FCA's qualification requirements for retail investment advisers and develops core technical knowledge and financial planning capabilities across six compulsory units. Five of these units cover technical knowledge and application within the specific topic, and the final unit covers the integrated practical application of these technical knowledge and planning skills.

Learning and assessment

Learning materials provided

For units in this qualification, students typically have access to the following materials as part of their enrolment:

- Study text (digital only or printed and digital) with online updates
- Online support including exam guide via RevisionMate

Additional or different resources may be available for some units.

Study time

Specific study time guidelines are provided for each unit on its webpage and in the CII qualifications brochure.

The notional Ofqual 'Total Qualification Time' for this qualification is 370 hours*. This represents the time a student might typically take to complete the qualification.

*'Total Qualification Time' is a term that awarding organisations are required by Ofqual (the qualifications regulator in England) to use to describe the size of qualifications.

Assessment format

Each unit, except for R06, is assessed by a single multiple-choice on screen exam – exams are available weekly at UK and non-UK online exam centres or via remote invigilation.

R06 is assessed by a written examination with pre-released case studies. The qualification award will be graded pass/fail.

To be awarded this qualification, each unit must be passed. The nominal pass mark for each unit within this qualification can be found on the relevant unit page. Please note, pass marks may vary from examination to examination to take account of the relative difficulty of examinations presented to candidates, ensuring that the pass standard remains constant.

We regularly update our qualifications, units and assessments to maintain industry relevance and assessment standards.

Further information on learning and assessment for each unit

Please ensure that you refer to the individual unit syllabus for unit-specific details:

- learning outcomes and assessment criteria
- further reading and resources
- important notes, such as the tax and legislative position that will be assessed

This is available on each unit webpage, accessible from the qualification webpage.

Please also select your unit from the webpage to find out about any unit updates.

Important assessment policies

Details of terms and conditions which apply to candidates entering for assessments with the CII are set out on the CII website. By entering any assessment with the CII, you agree to be bound by these terms and conditions and our assessment policies.

Fair access to our qualifications

The CII acts at all times to ensure that no unfair barriers apply to those seeking to gain the qualifications it offers. If, due to disability or illness, you may require adjustments in order to access an assessment, please read the Qualifications accessibility and special circumstances policy and guidance and contact the CII Customer Service team as soon as possible to discuss how we can meet your needs.

Qualification Fees

We are required by our regulators to publish a standardised set of qualification fees and these are set out below. The best way for you to calculate the cost of completing a qualification is by looking at the unit shop pages for the units you are planning to take.

The terms, 'Standard Qualification Fee', 'Package fee' and 'Associated Learner Fees' are defined by our regulators, Ofqual, CCEA and Qualifications Wales, to create consistency between UK-based awarding organisations. It is a regulatory requirement to illustrate our pricing in this way. The total price paid will depend upon specific pathway chosen, membership status and local currency. Further pricing information by unit and component relevant to your specific pathway remains available on your qualification webpage. The table below describes what each fee indicates.

Fee	Description
Standard Qualification Fee	The standard total fees payable for the assessment elements of the core qualification throughout a typical course of study.
Package Fee	Where applicable, the total of the fees payable for mandatory learning materials elements of the core qualification throughout a typical course of study.
Associated Learner Fees	Additional fees for optional services payable: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • at the learner's discretion. • in specific circumstances only; or, • for additional study requirements prior to completing this qualification.

Please note these fees are based on non-CII members taking the qualification in the UK, following a typical route to completion, using digital only options where available. Costs may vary for those residing outside the UK and depending on the route to completion. Substantial discounts are available to members and are detailed on the individual unit shop pages.
