Investment strategy

FGEN invests in a diversified portfolio of mature environmental infrastructure assets, projects and businesses that support more environmentally friendly economic activities while delivering stable financial returns.

Sustainability and ESG practices are integrated into the Company's activities to manage risks and identify opportunities.

Investments typically:

- have the benefit of long-term, predictable cash flows, which may be wholly or partially inflation-linked;
- are supported by long-term contracts or stable and well-proven regulatory and legal frameworks; or
- feature well-established technologies with a track-record of reliable operational performance.

Environmental, Social & Governance

Sustainability considerations and ESG criteria are embedded in FGEN's investment process and asset management procedures from initial screening through due diligence and into ongoing monitoring and reporting.

FGEN is an Article 9 Fund under the EU Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation ("SFDR").
