1.2 The headings in these articles do not affect the interpretation of these articles.

1.3 Unless the context otherwise requires words or expressions contained in these articles bear the same meaning as in the Law.

- 1.4 References to 'in writing' and 'written' include the reproduction of words and figures in any visible and non-transitory form, including, for the avoidance of doubt email.
- 1.5 Words importing the singular number only shall include the plural number and vice versa.
- 1.6 Words importing a particular gender only shall include any other gender.
- 1.7 Words importing persons shall include corporations and incorporated bodies of persons.
- 1.8 A reference to the Auditors confirming any matter shall be construed to mean confirmation of their opinion as to such matter whether qualified or not.

2 Shares

2.1 Ordinary Shares carry the following rights:

(a) Dividends

Holders of Ordinary Shares are entitled to receive, and participate in, any dividends or other distributions of the Company available for dividend or distribution.

(b) Winding up

See article 35.

(c) Voting

Subject to any special rights, restrictions or prohibitions regarding voting for the time being attached to any Ordinary Shares, holders of Ordinary Shares shall have the right to receive notice of and to attend, speak and vote at general meetings of the Company and each holder being present in person or by proxy or by corporate representative (in the case of a corporate holder) shall upon a show of hands have one vote and upon a poll one vote in respect of every Ordinary Share that they hold or have been appointed proxy or representative. If a member or his duly appointed representative or proxy present at a general meeting votes on a poll, he does not need to use all his votes or cast all the votes in the same way.

3 Share Capital

- 3.1 The Company may issue an unlimited number of shares of a par value and/or a no par value or a combination of both. Shares may be denominated in any currency and different classes of shares may be denominated in different currencies (or no currency in the case of shares of no par value).
- 3.2 Subject to the provisions of the Law and without prejudice to any rights attached to any existing shares or class of shares or to the provisions of these articles, any share may be issued with such preferred deferred conversion or other rights or restrictions as the Company may by ordinary resolution direct or, subject to or in default of any such direction, as the directors may determine.
- 3.3 The Company may issue fractions of shares and any such fractional shares shall rank pari passu in all respects with the other shares of the same class issued by the Company.

- 3.4 The Company may from time to time hold its own shares as treasury shares.
- 3.5 The Company may acquire its own shares. Any such shares acquired by the Company may be cancelled or may be held as treasury shares, subject to and in accordance with the Law.
- 3.6 Subject to the provisions of the Law, the Company and any of its subsidiary companies may give financial assistance, as defined in the Law, directly or indirectly for the purposes of or in connection with the acquisition of its shares.
- 3.7 The Company may issue shares which are, or at the option of the Company or the holder are, liable to be redeemed and convert all or any class of its shares into redeemable shares.
- 3.8 The Company may issue shares which do not entitle the holder to voting rights in any general meeting or that entitle the holder to restricted voting rights in any general meeting.
- 3.9 Whenever the capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares the rights attached to any class may (subject to the terms of issue of the shares of that class) be varied or abrogated, either whilst the Company is a going concern or during or in contemplation of a winding-up:
- (a) with the consent in writing of the holders of at least 75 per cent. of the issued shares of that class (excluding treasury shares); or
 - (b) with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.
- 3.10 All the provisions of these articles relating to general meetings of the Company or to the proceedings thereat shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to every such separate meeting except that, in accordance with the Law:
- (a) the necessary quorum shall be two persons present in person or represented by proxy (but so that if at any adjourned meeting of such holders a quorum is not present, one person present holding shares of the relevant class or their proxy shall be a quorum) provided always that where the class has only one member, that member shall constitute the necessary quorum; and
 - (b) any holder of shares of the class in question may demand a poll.
- 3.11 The special rights conferred upon the holders of any shares or class of shares issued with preferred, deferred or other rights shall (unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of such shares) be deemed not to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith or by any purchase by the Company of its own shares and, for the avoidance of doubt, the issue of further Ordinary Shares shall not be treated as varying the rights attaching to Ordinary Shares or by the exercise of any power under the disclosure provisions requiring holders of shares to disclose an interest in the Company's shares pursuant to articles 4.1, 4.2 and 4.3.
- 3.12 Subject to the provisions of the Law, these articles, and any resolution of the Company, the directors have general and unconditional authority:
- (a) to allot, issue (with or without conferring rights of renunciation), grant, warrants, options or other rights over, offer or otherwise deal with or dispose of unissued shares of the Company of an unlimited number or an unlimited aggregate value or rights to subscribe or convert any security into shares; or

- (b) to sell, transfer or cancel any treasury shares held by the Company, in any such case to such persons, at such times and on such terms and conditions as the directors may decide. Without limiting this article, the directors may designate the unissued shares upon issue as Ordinary Shares or such other class or classes of shares (and denominated in any currency or currencies as the directors may determine) or as shares with special or other rights as the directors may then determine.

- 3.13 The Company may exercise the powers of paying commissions and in such an amount or at such a percentage rate as the directors may determine. Subject to the provisions of the Law any such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or by the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other. The Company may also on any issue of shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful.
- 3.14 Except as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust and (except as otherwise provided by these articles or by law) the Company shall not be bound by or compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any interest in any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the holder.

4 Disclosure Notice

- 4.1 The directors may, by notice in writing (a Disclosure Notice) require a person whom the directors know to be or have reasonable cause to believe is or, at any time during the three years immediately preceding the date on which the Disclosure Notice is issued to have been, interested in any shares:

- (a) to confirm that fact or (as the case may be) to indicate whether or not it is the case; and
- (b) if they hold, or have during that time held, any such interest, to give such further information as may be required in accordance with article 4.2.

- 4.2 A Disclosure Notice may (without limitation) require the person to whom it is addressed:

- (a) to give particulars of the person's status, domicile, nationality and residency;
- (b) to give particulars of their own past or present interest in any shares (held by them at any time during the three year period specified in article 4.1);
- (c) where their interest is a present interest and another interest in the shares subsists or where any other interest in any shares subsisted during that three year period specified in article 4.1 at a time when their own interest subsisted, to give (so far as is within their knowledge) such particulars with respect to that other interest as may be required by the Disclosure Notice, including the identity of persons interested in the shares in question; and

- (d) where their interest is a past interest to give (so far as is within their knowledge) such particulars of the identity of the person who held that interest immediately upon their ceasing to hold it.
- 4.3 Any Disclosure Notice shall require any information in response to such notice to be given within the prescribed period (which is 14 days after service of the notice) or such other reasonable period as the directors may determine.
- 4.4 If any member is in default in supplying to the Company the information required by the Company within the prescribed period or such other reasonable period as the directors determine, the directors in their absolute discretion may serve a direction notice on the member. The direction notice may direct that in respect of the shares in respect of which the default has occurred (the Default Shares) the member shall not be entitled to be present or to vote in general meetings or class meetings (in person, by representative or by proxy) or on any poll or to exercise any other right conferred by membership in relation to any such meeting or poll. Reference in this article to a member being in default in supplying the Company with the information shall include (but not be limited to) a member having refused or failed to give all or any part of it or having given information which they know to be false in a material way or having recklessly given information which is false in a material way.
- 4.5 Where the Default Shares represent 0.25 per cent. or more in number of the class of shares concerned (calculated excluding treasury shares) the direction notice may additionally direct that:
- (a) dividends (including shares issued in lieu of dividends) on such shares will be retained by the Company (without interest); and
 - (b) no transfer of the Default Shares (other than an excepted transfer as defined in article 4.10(c) below) shall be registered unless:
 - (i) the member is not themselves in default as regards supplying the information required; and
 - (ii) the member proves to the satisfaction of the board that no person in default as regards supplying such information is interested in any of the shares the subject of the transfer.

For the purpose of ensuring this article can apply to all shares held by the member, the Company may, in accordance with the Regulations, issue a written notification to the operator of the relevant system requiring the conversion into certificated form of any shares held by the member in uncertificated form.

- 4.6 Any new shares in the Company issued in right of Default Shares shall be subject to the same sanctions as apply to the Default Shares provided that any sanctions applying to, or to a right to, new shares by virtue of this article shall cease to have effect when the sanctions applying to the related Default Shares cease to have effect (and shall be suspended or cancelled if and to the extent that the sanctions applying to the related Default Shares are suspended or cancelled) and provided further that articles 4.3 to 4.5 shall apply to the exclusion of this article if the Company gives a separate notice under article 4.1 in relation to the new shares.

- 4.7 The Company may at any time withdraw a direction notice by serving on the member of the Default Shares a notice in writing to that effect (a withdrawal notice), and a direction notice shall be deemed to have been withdrawn at the end of the period of seven days (or such shorter period as the board may determine) following receipt by the Company of the information required by the Disclosure Notice in respect of all the shares to which the direction notice related.
- 4.8 Unless and until a withdrawal notice is duly served in relation thereto or a direction notice in relation thereto is deemed to have been withdrawn or the shares to which a direction notice relates are transferred by means of an excepted transfer, the sanctions referred to in articles 4.4 and 4.5 (as applicable) shall continue to apply.
- 4.9 Where, on the basis of information obtained from a member in respect of any share held by them, the Company issues a notice pursuant to article 4.1 to any other person and such person fails to give the Company the information thereby required within the prescribed period (as set out in article 4.3) and the board serves a direction notice upon such person, it shall at the same time send a copy of the direction notice to the member of such share, but the accidental omission to do so, or the non-receipt by the member of the copy, shall not invalidate or otherwise affect the application of articles 4.4 to 4.6.
- 4.10 For the purpose of this article 4:
- (a) interest includes an interest of any kind whatsoever in the shares (disregarding any restraints or restrictions to which the exercise of any right attached to the interest in the share is, or may be, subject) and without limiting the meaning of "interest" a person shall be taken to have an interest in a share if:
- (i) they are a beneficiary of a trust where the property held on trust includes an interest in the share;
 - (ii) they enter into a contract to acquire it;
 - (iii) not being the registered member, they are entitled to exercise any right conferred by the holding of the share or to control the exercise of any such right, and for the purposes of this article 4.10(a)(iii) a person is entitled to exercise or control the exercise of a right conferred by the holding of shares if they have a right (whether subject to conditions or not) the exercise of which would make them so entitled, or are under an obligation (whether subject to conditions or not) the fulfilment of which would make them so entitled;
 - (iv) they have a right (whether conditional or absolute) to call for delivery of the share to themselves or to their order;
 - (v) they have a right (whether conditional or absolute) to acquire an interest in the share or are under an obligation (whether conditional or absolute) to take an interest in the share;
 - (vi) they have a right to subscribe for the share;

- (vii) their spouse, civil partner, infant child or step-child is interested in the share; and infant means a person under the age of 18 years; or
- (viii) a body corporate is interested in the share and:
 - (A) that body corporate or its directors are accustomed to act in accordance with their directions or instructions; or
 - (B) they are entitled to exercise or control the exercise of one-third or more of the voting power at general meetings of that body corporate, provided that (a) a person is treated as entitled to exercise or control the voting power if another body corporate is entitled to exercise or control the exercise of that voting power and such person is entitled to exercise or control the exercise of one-third or more of that voting power and (b) a person is treated as entitled to exercise or control the exercise of voting power if they have a right (whether or not subject to conditions) the exercise of which would make them so entitled or they are under an obligation (whether or not subject to conditions) the fulfilment of which would make them so entitled;

- (b) a person other than the holder of a share shall be treated as appearing to be interested in that share if the holder has informed the Company that the person is or may be so interested or if (after taking into account the said notification and any other relevant information in the possession of the Company) the Company knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the person in question is or may be interested in the share; and
- (c) an excepted transfer means, in relation to any share held by a member:
 - (i) a transfer pursuant to acceptance of an offer made to all the members (or all the members other than the person making the offer and their nominees) of the shares in the Company to acquire those shares or a specified proportion of them, or to all the members (or all the members other than the person making the offer and their nominees) of a particular class of those shares to acquire the shares of that class or a specified proportion of them; or
 - (ii) a transfer in consequence of a sale made through a recognised investment exchange (as defined in the FSMA) or any other stock exchange outside the United Kingdom on which the Company's shares are normally traded; or
 - (iii) a transfer which is shown to the satisfaction of the board to be made in consequence of a bona fide sale of the whole of the beneficial interest in the share to a person who is unconnected with the member and with any other person appearing to be interested in the share.

4.11 In addition to the right of the directors to serve notice on any person pursuant to article 4.1, the directors may serve notice on any member requiring that member to promptly provide the Company with any information, representations, certificates or forms relating to such holder (or its direct or indirect owners or account holders) that the directors determine from time to time are necessary or appropriate for the Company to:

- (a) satisfy any account or payee identification, documentation or other diligence requirements and any reporting requirements imposed under sections 1471 to 1474 of the US Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder and any agreement relating thereto (including, any amendments, modification, consolidation, re-enactment or replacement thereof made from time to time) (FATCA) or the requirements of any similar laws or regulations to which the Company may be subject enacted from time to time by any other jurisdiction (Similar Laws); or
- (b) avoid or reduce any tax otherwise imposed by FATCA or Similar Laws (including any withholding upon any payments to such holder by the Company); or
- (c) permit the Company to enter into, comply with, or prevent a default under or termination of, an agreement of the type described in section 1471(b) of the US Code or under Similar Laws.

4.12 The Company shall not be required to enter the name of more than four joint holders in the Register.

5 Pre-Emption Rights

5.1 The Company shall not allot and issue equity securities, nor sell them from treasury, for cash on any terms to a person unless:

- (a) it has made an offer to each person who holds equity securities of the same class in the Company to allot and issue to them on the same or more favourable terms a proportion of those equity securities which is as nearly as practicable equal to the proportion in number held by them of the share capital of the Company of that class; and
- (b) the period during which any such offer may be accepted by the relevant current holders has expired or the Company has received a notice of the acceptance or refusal of every offer so made from such holders, provided that the directors may impose such exclusions and/or make such other arrangements as they deem necessary or expedient in relation to fractional entitlements or having regard to any legal or practical problems arising under the laws of any overseas territory or the requirements of any regulatory body or stock exchange in any territory or otherwise howsoever. The holders of equity securities affected as a result of such exclusions or arrangements shall not be deemed, or be deemed to be, a separate class of members for any purposes whatsoever.

5.2 Securities that the Company has offered to allot to a holder of equity securities in accordance with article 5.1 may be issued to them, or anyone in whose favour they have renounced their right to their allotment, without contravening the restrictions in article 5.1.

- 5.3 Where equity securities are held by two or more persons jointly, an offer under article 5.1 may be made to the joint holder first named in the Register in respect of the equity securities.
- 5.4 In the case of a holder's death or bankruptcy, the offer must be made:
- (a) by sending it by post in a prepaid letter addressed to the persons claiming to be entitled to the equity securities in consequence of the death or bankruptcy by name, or by the title of the representatives of the deceased, or trustee of the bankruptcy, or by any like description, at the address supplied for the purpose by those claiming; or
 - (b) until any such address has been so supplied giving the notice in any manner in which it would have been given if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred.
- 5.5 If the relevant holder in relation to an offer under article 5.1 has no registered address in the United Kingdom or Guernsey for the service of notices on them the offer may be made by causing it or a notice of where a copy may be obtained or inspected to be published in at least one United Kingdom national newspaper and one daily newspaper circulated in Guernsey.
- 5.6 An offer pursuant to article 5.1 should be made by a notice (given in accordance with article 34) and must state a period of not less than 14 days beginning on the date on which such offer is deemed to be delivered or received (as the case may be) pursuant to article 34 during which it may be accepted and the offer shall not be withdrawn before the end of that period.
- 5.7 Shares held by the Company as treasury shares are disregarded for the purposes of this article so that:
- (a) the Company is not treated as a person who holds shares; and
 - (b) equity securities held as treasury shares are not treated as forming part of the share capital of the Company.
- 5.8 Notwithstanding the provisions of articles 5.1 to 5.7, the directors may be given by virtue of a special resolution the power to issue, or sell from treasury, equity securities either generally or in respect of a specific issue, or sale from treasury, such that:
- (a) article 5.1 shall not apply to the issue of Ordinary Shares or otherwise, or sale of Ordinary Shares or otherwise from treasury; or
 - (b) article 5.1 shall only apply to the issue of Ordinary Shares or otherwise, or sale of Ordinary Shares or otherwise from treasury with such modifications as the directors may determine; and
 - (c) the authority granted by the special resolution may be granted for such period of time as the special resolution permits and such authority may be revoked, repealed or varied by a further special resolution, provided that such special resolution must:
 - (i) state the maximum number of equity securities in respect of which article 5.1 is excluded or modified; and

- (ii) specify the date on which such exclusion or modifications will expire, which must be not more than five years from the date on which the resolution is passed.

5.9 Any special resolution passed pursuant to article 5.8 may:

- (a) be renewed or further renewed by a further special resolution for a further period not exceeding five years; and
- (b) be revoked or varied at any time by a further special resolution.

5.10 Notwithstanding that any such special resolution passed pursuant to article 5.8 may have expired, the directors may issue or sell from treasury equity securities in pursuance of an offer or agreement previously made by the Company, if the special resolution enabled the Company to make an offer or agreement which would or might require equity securities to be issued or sold from treasury after it expired.

5.11 Article 5.1 shall not apply in relation to the issue of:

- (a) bonus shares, shares issued in lieu of dividend or distribution, nor to a particular issue of equity securities if they are, or are to be, wholly or partially paid otherwise than in cash; or
- (b) equity securities in connection with a rights issue, open offer or other offer of securities in favour of the holders of shares or a class of shares at such record date as the directors may determine where the securities attributable to the interests of holders of shares or a class of shares are proportionate (as near as may be practicable) to the respective numbers of shares of that class held by them on such record date, subject to such conditions or other arrangements as the directors may deem necessary or expedient in relation to fractional entitlements or legal or practical problems arising under the laws of any jurisdiction or the requirements of any regulatory body or stock exchange or any other matter whatsoever.

5.12 The directors may exclude from any offer made pursuant to article 5.1 any holders of equity securities where they believe that the making of the offer to them would or might involve the contravention of the laws of any territory.

5.13 References in this article 5 to the allotment of equity securities include:

- (a) the grant of a right to subscribe for, or to convert any securities into, shares in the Company (but do not include the allotment of shares pursuant to such a right); and
- (b) the sale of shares in the Company that immediately before the sale are held by the Company as treasury shares.

6 Certificates

6.1 Every member, upon becoming the holder of any certificated shares, shall be entitled, without payment, to one certificate for all the shares of each class held by them (and (except in the case of a recognised person) upon transferring a part of their holding of shares of any class to a certificate for the balance of such holding) or several certificates each for one or more of their certificated shares upon payment, for every certificate after the first, of such reasonable sum as the directors may determine. Every certificate shall be signed by the Company and shall specify the number, class and distinguishing numbers (if any) of the shares to which it relates and the amount or respective amounts paid up (if relevant) thereon. The Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate for certificated shares held jointly by several persons and delivery of a certificate to one joint holder shall be a sufficient delivery to all of them.

- 6.2 If a share certificate is defaced, worn out, lost or destroyed it may be renewed on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity and payment of the liability and expenses reasonably incurred by the Company in investigating evidence as the directors may determine but otherwise free of charge and (in the case of defacement or wearing out) on delivery up of the old certificate.

7 Lien

- 7.1 The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) payable at a fixed time or called in respect of that share. The directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this article. The Company's lien on a share shall extend to any amount payable in respect of it.
- 7.2 The Company may sell in such manner as the directors determine any shares on which the Company has a lien if a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable and is not paid within 14 days after notice has been given to the holder of the share or to the person entitled to it in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of the holder, demanding payment and stating that if the notice is not complied with the shares may be sold.
- 7.3 To give effect to a sale the directors may authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares sold to or in accordance with the directions of the purchaser. The title of the transferee to the shares shall not be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the sale.
- 7.4 The net proceeds of the sale after payment of the costs shall be applied in payment of so much of the sum for which the lien exists as is presently payable and any residue shall (upon surrender to the Company for cancellation of the certificate for the shares sold, or the provision of such evidence or indemnity as the directors may think fit, and subject to a like lien for any moneys not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares immediately before the sale.

8 Calls on Shares and Forfeiture

- 8.1 Subject to the terms of allotment, the directors may make calls upon any member in respect of any moneys unpaid on that member's shares at the date of the call (whether in respect of nominal value or premium) and each member shall (subject to receiving at least 14 clear days' notice specifying when and where payment is to be made) pay to the Company as required by the notice the amount called on their shares. A call may be required to be paid by instalments. A call may, before receipt by the Company of any sum due thereunder, be revoked by the directors in whole or part and payment of a call may be postponed in whole or part. A person upon whom a call is made shall remain liable for calls made upon them notwithstanding the subsequent transfer of the shares in respect whereof the call was made.

- 8.2 A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the directors authorising the call was passed.
- 8.3 The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof without the benefit of any right conferred by the droit de division and/or the droit de discussion.
- 8.4 If a call remains unpaid after it has become due and payable the person from whom it is due and payable shall pay interest on the amount unpaid from the day it became due and payable until it is paid; either at the rate fixed by the terms of allotment of the share or in the notice of the call or at such rate not exceeding ten per cent. per annum as the directors may determine, together with all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment. The directors may waive payment of the interest and such expenses wholly or in part.
- 8.5 An amount payable in respect of a share on allotment or at any fixed date, whether in respect of the nominal value or premium or as an instalment of a call, shall be deemed to be a call and if it is not paid the provisions of these articles shall apply as if that amount had become due and payable by virtue of a call. The Company may accept from a member the whole or any part of the amount remaining unpaid on any shares held by them although no part of that amount has been called up.
- 8.6 Subject to the terms of allotment, the directors may make arrangements on the issue of shares to distinguish between members as to the amounts and times of payment of calls on their shares.
- 8.7 If a call remains unpaid after it has become due and payable the directors may give to the person from whom it is due not less than 14 clear days' notice requiring payment of the amount unpaid together with any interest which may have accrued and any expenses which may have been incurred by the Company in respect thereof. The notice shall name the place where payment is to be made and shall state that if the notice is not complied with the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited. The directors may accept the surrender of any share liable to be forfeited upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed and, subject to any such terms and conditions, a surrendered share shall be treated as if it had been forfeited.
- 8.8 If a notice referred to in the preceding article is not complied with any share in respect of which it was given may at any time thereafter before the payment required by the notice has been made be forfeited by a resolution of the directors and the forfeiture shall include all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before the forfeiture. Forfeiture shall be deemed to occur at the time of the passing of the said resolution of the directors.
- 8.9 A forfeited share may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such a manner as the directors determine either to the person who was before the forfeiture the holder or to any other person and at any time before sale, re-allotment or other disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the directors think fit. The Company shall not exercise any voting rights in respect of such a share. Where for the purposes of its disposal a forfeited share is to be transferred to any person the directors may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the share to that person.

- 8.10 A person any of whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of them and shall surrender to the Company for cancellation the certificate for any certificated shares forfeited but shall remain liable to the Company for all moneys which at the date of forfeiture were presently payable by them to the Company in respect of those shares with interest at the rate at which interest was payable on those moneys before the forfeiture or at such rate as the directors may determine from the date of forfeiture and all expenses until payment but the directors may waive payment wholly or in part or enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or for any consideration received on their disposal.
- 8.11 A declaration under oath by a director or the secretary that a share has been forfeited on a specified date shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share and the declaration shall (subject to the execution of an instrument of transfer if necessary) constitute a good title to the share and the person to whom the share is disposed of shall not be bound to see to the application of the consideration, if any, nor shall their title to the share be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, surrender, sale, re- allotment or disposal of the share.

9 Untraced Shareholders

- 9.1 The Company may sell the share of a member or of a person entitled by transmission at the best price reasonably obtainable at the time of sale, if:
- (a) during a period of not less than 12 years before the date of publication of the advertisements referred to in article 9.1(iii) (or, if published on two different dates, the first date) (the relevant period) at least three cash dividends have become payable in respect of the share;
 - (b) throughout the relevant period no cheque payable on the share has been presented by the holder of, or the person entitled by transmission to, the share to the paying bank of the relevant cheque, no payment made by the Company by any other means permitted by article 31 has been claimed or accepted and, so far as any director of the Company at the end of the relevant period is then aware, the Company has not at any time during the relevant period received any communication from the holder of, or person entitled by transmission to, the share;
 - (c) on expiry of the relevant period the Company has given notice of its intention to sell the share by advertisement in a United Kingdom national newspaper, in a daily newspaper circulating widely in Guernsey and in a newspaper circulating in the area of the address of the holder of, or person entitled by transmission to, the share shown in the register of members; and
 - (d) the Company has not, so far as the board is aware, during a further period of three months after the date of the advertisements referred to in article 9.1(iii) (or the later advertisement if the advertisements are published on different dates) and before the exercise of the power of sale received a communication from the holder of, or person entitled by transmission to, the share.
- 9.2 Where a power of sale is exercisable over a share pursuant to article 9.1 (a Sale Share), the Company may at the same time also sell any additional share issued in right of such Sale Share or in right of such an additional share previously so issued PROVIDED THAT the requirements of articles 9.1(ii) to 9.1(iv) (as if the words "throughout the relevant period", "at the end of the relevant period" and "at any time during the relevant period" were omitted from article 9.1(ii)) and the words "on expiry of the relevant period" were omitted from article 9.1(iii)) shall have been satisfied in relation to the additional share.

- 9.3 To give effect to a sale pursuant to articles 9.1 and 9.2, the board may authorise a person to transfer the share in the name and on behalf of the holder of, or person entitled by transmission to, the share, or to cause the transfer of such share, to the purchaser or their nominee and in relation to an uncertificated share may require the operator of any Uncertificated System to convert the share into certificated form. The purchaser is not bound to see to the application of the purchase money and the title of the transferee is not affected by an irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings connected with the sale of the share.

10 Transfer of Shares

- 10.1 The directors shall have power to implement such arrangements as they may, in their absolute discretion, think fit in order for any class of shares to be (or cease to be) admitted to settlement by means of an Uncertificated System (subject always to the Regulations and the facilities and requirements of the relevant system concerned). Where the directors have determined any sum of shares shall be admitted to settlement by means of the CREST UK system, articles 10.2 to 10.6 (inclusive) shall commence to have effect immediately prior to the time at which Euroclear admits the class of shares to settlement by means of the CREST UK system.
- 10.2 In relation to any class of shares which, for the time being, Euroclear has admitted to settlement by means of the CREST UK system, and for so long as such class remains so admitted, no provision of these articles shall apply or have effect to the extent that it is in any respect inconsistent with:
- (a) the holding of shares of that class in uncertificated form;
 - (b) the transfer of title to shares of that class by means of the CREST UK system; or
 - (c) the CREST Guernsey Regulations and the CREST Guernsey Requirements.
- 10.3 Where any class of shares is for the time being admitted to settlement by means of the CREST UK system, such securities may be issued in uncertificated form in accordance with and subject as provided in the CREST Guernsey Regulations and the CREST Guernsey Requirements.
- 10.4 Shares may be changed from uncertificated to certificated form and from certificated to uncertificated form in accordance with and subject as provided in the CREST Guernsey Regulations and the CREST Guernsey Requirements.
- 10.5 If under these articles or the Law or the rules made or practices instituted by the operator of any Uncertificated System the Company is entitled to dispose of, forfeit, enforce a lien or sell or otherwise procure the sale of any shares which are held in uncertificated form, such entitlement (to the extent permitted by the CREST Guernsey Regulations, the CREST Guernsey Requirements and the Regulations and the rules made and practices instituted by the operator of the relevant system) shall include the right to:

- (a) request or require the deletion of any computer-based entries in the relevant system relating to the hold of such shares in uncertificated form;
- (b) require any holder of any uncertificated shares which are the subject of any exercise by the Company of any such entitlement or require Euroclear in respect of any such shares, by notice in writing to the holder concerned or to Euroclear, to change that share from uncertificated to certificated form within such period as may be specified in the notice and keep it as a certificated share for as long as the board requires or direct the holder or Euroclear to take such steps, by instructions given by means of a relevant system or otherwise, as may be necessary to sell or transfer such shares;
- (c) appoint any person to take such other steps, by instructions given by means of a relevant system or otherwise, in the name of the holder of such share as may be required to effect the transfer of such shares and such steps shall be as effective as if they had been taken by the registered holder of the uncertificated shares concerned;
- (d) transfer any uncertificated shares which are the subject of any exercise by the Company of any such entitlement by entering the name of the transferee in the register of members in respect of that share as a transferred share;
- (e) otherwise rectify or change the register of members in respect of that share in such manner as may be appropriate; and/or
- (f) take such other actions as may be necessary to enable those shares to be registered in the name of the person to whom the shares have been sold or disposed of as directed by them.

10.6 Uncertificated shares of a class are not to be regarded as forming a separate class from certificated shares of that class. Unless the directors otherwise determine, shares held by the same holder or joint holder in both certificated form and uncertificated form shall be treated as separate holdings.

10.7 Subject to such of the restrictions of these articles as may be applicable:

- (a) any member may transfer all or any of their uncertificated shares by means of an Uncertificated System authorised by the directors in such manner provided for, and subject as provided in, the Regulations, or such as may otherwise from time to time be adopted by the directors on behalf of the Company and the rules of any Uncertificated System, and no provision of these articles shall apply in respect of an uncertificated share to the extent that it requires or contemplates the effecting of a transfer by an instrument in writing or the production of a certificate for the shares to be transferred;
- (b) any member may transfer all or any of their certificated shares by an instrument of transfer in any usual form or in any other form which the directors may approve; and

- (c) an instrument of transfer of a certificated share shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and, unless the share is fully paid, by or on behalf of the transferee. An instrument of transfer of a certificated share need not be under seal.
- 10.8 Every instrument of transfer of a certificated share shall be left at the office or such other place as the directors may prescribe with the certificate of every share to be transferred and such other evidence as the directors may reasonably require to prove the title of the transferor or their right to transfer the shares. A new certificate shall be delivered free of charge to the transferee after the transfer is completed and registered on their application and when necessary a balance certificate shall be delivered if required by them in writing.
- 10.9 The directors may, in their absolute discretion and without giving a reason, refuse to transfer, convert or register any transfer of any share in certificated form or uncertificated form (subject to article 10.10 below) which is not fully paid or on which the Company has a lien, provided in the case of a listed or quoted share that this would not prevent dealings in the share from taking place on an open and proper basis on the London Stock Exchange. In addition and subject to article 10.10, the directors may refuse to register a transfer of shares if:
 - (a) it is in respect of more than one class of shares;
 - (b) it is in favour of more than four joint transferees; or
 - (c) having been delivered for registration to the office or such other place as the directors may decide, it is not accompanied by the certificate for the shares to which it relates and such other evidence as the directors may reasonably require to prove title of the transferor and the due execution by them of the transfer or, if the transfer is executed by some other person on their behalf, the authority of that person to do so provided that, in the case of a transfer by a recognised person where a certificate has not been issued in respect of the share, the lodgement of share certificates shall not be necessary.
- 10.10 The directors may only decline to register a transfer of an uncertificated share in the circumstances set out in the Regulations or such as may otherwise from time to time be adopted by the directors on behalf of the Company or the rules of any Uncertificated System, where, in the case of a transfer to joint holders, the number of joint holders to whom the uncertificated share is to be transferred exceeds four.
- 10.11 If the directors refuse to register a transfer of a share they shall, within two months after the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged with the Company (or in the case of uncertificated shares, the date on which the operator-instruction was received), send to the transferor and the transferee notice of the refusal.
- 10.12 Subject to such restrictions (if any) as may be imposed by the CREST Guernsey Requirements and/or the rules of any other Uncertificated System, the registration of transfers of shares or of transfers of any class of shares may be suspended by giving such notices as may be required by the rules of any Uncertificated System at such times and for such periods (not exceeding 30 days in any year) as the directors may determine.

10.13 No fee shall be charged for the registration of any instrument of transfer or, subject as otherwise provided in these articles, any other document relating to or affecting the title to any share.

10.14 The Company shall be entitled to retain any instrument of transfer of a certificated share which is registered but any instrument of transfer which the directors refuse to register shall be returned (except in the case of fraud) to the person lodging it when notice of the refusal is given.

11 Transmission of Shares

11.1 If a member dies, the survivor or survivors where such a member was a joint holder, and their personal representatives where such a member was a sole holder or the only survivor of joint holders, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to their interest; but nothing contained in these articles shall release the estate of a deceased member from any liability in respect of any share which had been held by them solely or jointly with other persons.

11.2 A person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death, bankruptcy or incapacity of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as the directors may properly require, elect either to become the holder of the share or to make such transfer thereof as the deceased, bankrupt or incapacitated member could have made. If they elect to become the holder they shall give notice to the Company to that effect. If they elect to transfer the share they shall execute an instrument of transfer of the share to the transferee. All of the articles relating to the transfer of shares shall apply to the notice or instrument of transfer as if it were an instrument of transfer executed by the member and the death, bankruptcy or incapacity of the member had not occurred.

11.3 A person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death, bankruptcy or incapacity of a member shall have the rights to which they would be entitled if they were the holder of the share except that they shall not before being registered as the holder of the share be entitled in respect of it to attend or vote at any meeting of the Company or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the Company. The directors may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within 60 days, the directors may, to the extent permitted, withhold payment of all dividends and other distributions and payments declared in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

12 Alteration of Share Capital

12.1 The Company may by ordinary resolution:

- (a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amounts than its existing shares;
- (b) sub-divide all its shares, or any of them, into shares of smaller amount, so, however, that in the sub-division the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each reduced share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the reduced share is derived;

- (c) cancel any shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution have not been taken up or agreed to be taken up by any person and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled;
 - (d) convert all or any of its shares, denominated in a particular currency or former currency, into shares denominated in a different currency, the conversion being effected at the rate of exchange (calculated to not less than three significant figures) current on the date of the resolution or on such other dates as may be specified therein; and
 - (e) where its share capital is expressed in a particular currency or former currency, denominate or redenominate it, either by expressing its amount in units or subdivisions of that currency or former currency, or otherwise.
- 12.2 The directors, on any consolidation of shares, may deal with fractions of shares in any manner. Without limitation to the foregoing, whenever as a result of a consolidation of shares any members would become entitled to fractions of a share, the directors may, in their absolute discretion, on behalf of those members, sell the shares representing the fractions for the best price reasonably obtainable to any person (including, subject to the provisions of the Law, the Company) and distribute the net proceeds of sale in due proportion among those members (subject to retention by the Company of amounts not exceeding £5.00 per member, the cost of distribution of which would be disproportionate to the amounts involved). The directors may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to or in accordance with the directions of the purchaser. The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall their title to the shares be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the sale.

13 General Meetings

- 13.1 All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings. All general meetings may be held at any place in Guernsey or elsewhere.
- 13.2 The board of directors may call general meetings and on the requisition of members pursuant to the provisions of the Law shall forthwith proceed to convene a general meeting within 21 days after the receipt of the requisition in accordance with the Law to be held on a date not more than 28 days after the date of the notice convening the meeting. If there are not sufficient directors to call a general meeting, any director or any member of the Company may call such a meeting.
- 13.3 Any general meeting convened by the directors, unless its time shall have been fixed by the Company in general meeting or unless convened in pursuance of a requisition, may be postponed by the directors by notice in writing and the meeting shall, subject to any further postponement or adjournment, be held at the postponed date for the purpose of transacting the business covered by the original notice.
- 13.4 In these articles:
- (a) a physical meeting means a general meeting held and conducted by physical attendance by members and/or proxies at a particular place; and

- (b) a hybrid meeting means a general meeting held and conducted by both physical attendance by members and/or proxies at a particular place and by members and/or proxies also being able to attend and participate by electronic means without needing to be in physical attendance at that place.
- 13.5 The board may decide in relation to any general meeting (including a postponed or adjourned meeting) whether the general meeting is to be held as a physical meeting or as a hybrid meeting and shall, for the avoidance of doubt, be under no obligation to convene a meeting as a hybrid meeting whatever the circumstances.
- 13.6 Subject to the requirements of the Law, the board may make such arrangements as they may decide in connection with the facilities for participation by electronic means in a hybrid meeting. In the case of a hybrid meeting, the provisions of these articles shall be treated as modified to permit any such arrangements and, in particular:
 - (a) references in these articles to attending and being present at the meeting, including in relation to the quorum for the meeting and the right to vote at the meeting, shall be treated as including participating in the meeting by electronic means;
 - (b) the meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings valid if the chairperson of the meeting is satisfied that adequate facilities have been made available so that all persons (being entitled to do so) attending the hybrid meeting by electronic means, may:
 - (i) participate in the business for which the meeting has been convened;
 - (ii) hear all persons who speak at the meeting or read what is communicated by others present at the meeting; and
 - (iii) be heard by all other persons present at the meeting,but under no circumstances shall the inability of one or more members or proxies to access, or continue to access, the facilities for participation in the meeting despite adequate facilities being made available by the Company, affect the validity of the meeting or any business conducted at the meeting, provided that the meeting is quorate;
 - (c) all resolutions put to members at a hybrid meeting, including in relation to procedural matters, shall be decided on a poll and such poll votes may be cast by such means as the board in its absolute discretion considers appropriate for a hybrid meeting;
 - (d) the board may authorise any voting application, system or facility in respect of the electronic platform for the hybrid general meetings as they may see fit; and
 - (e) if it appears to the chairperson of the meeting that the electronic facilities for a hybrid meeting have become inadequate for the purpose of holding the meeting then the chairperson of the meeting may, with or without the consent of the meeting, interrupt or adjourn the meeting (before or after it has started) and the provisions in article 15.4 shall apply to any such adjournment. All business conducted at the hybrid meeting up to the point of the adjournment shall be valid.

- 13.7 In relation to electronic participation at a general meeting, the right of a member to participate electronically shall include without limitation the right to speak, vote on a poll, be represented by a proxy and have access (including electronic access) to all documents which are required by the Law or these articles to be made available at the meeting.
- 13.8 If, after the sending of notice of a hybrid meeting but before the meeting is held (or after the adjournment of a hybrid meeting but before the adjourned meeting is held), the board considers that it is impracticable or unreasonable to hold the meeting at the time specified in the notice of meeting using the electronic facilities stated in the notice of meeting or made available prior to the meeting, they may change the meeting to a physical meeting, change the electronic facilities (and make details of the new facilities available in the manner stated in the notice of meeting), and/or postpone the time at which the meeting is to be held.
- 13.9 An adjourned general meeting or postponed general meeting may be held as a physical meeting or a hybrid meeting irrespective of the form of the general meeting which was adjourned or postponed.
- 13.10 The board or the chairperson of the meeting may make any arrangement and impose any requirement or restriction they or he consider appropriate to ensure the security of the hybrid meeting, or the health and safety of those attending it, including, without limitation, requirements for evidence of identity that is:
- (a) necessary to ensure the identification of those taking part and the security of the electronic communication, and
 - (b) proportionate to those objectives.

14 Notice of General Meetings

- 14.1 An annual general meeting shall be called by at least 21 clear days' notice in writing. All other general meetings shall be called by at least 14 clear days' notice in writing.
- 14.2 Subject to the provisions of these articles and to any restrictions imposed on any shares or on any holder the notice shall be given to all the members, to all persons entitled to a share in consequence of the death, bankruptcy or incapacity of a member where the Company has been notified of their entitlement and to every director and the auditors (if any).
- 14.3 The notice of meeting may also specify a time (which shall not be more than 48 hours (excluding any days which are not Business Days) before the time fixed for the meeting) by which a person must be entered on the register of members in order to have the right to attend or vote at the meeting. Changes to entries on the register of members after the time so specified in the notice shall be disregarded in determining the rights of any person to so attend or vote.
- 14.4 The directors may determine that those persons who are entered on the register of members at the close of business on a day determined by the directors (which may not be more than 21 days before the date on which the notices of meeting were sent) shall be the persons who are entitled to receive notice.
- 14.5 If the board, in its absolute discretion, considers that it is impractical or unreasonable for any reason to hold a general meeting at the time or place specified in the notice calling the general meeting, it may move and/or postpone the general meeting to another time and/or place. When a meeting is so moved and/or postponed, notice of the time and place of the moved and/or postponed meeting shall (if practical) be placed in a United Kingdom national newspaper and in a daily newspaper circulating widely in Guernsey. Such notices may also be available on the Company's website and/or via a regulatory news service, provided any such electronic communication is made in compliance with the Law. Notice of the business to be transacted at such moved and/or postponed meeting is not required. The board must take reasonable steps to ensure that members trying to attend the general meeting at the original time and/or place are informed of the new arrangements for the general meeting. Any postponed and/or moved meeting may also be postponed and/or moved under this article.

- 14.6 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting or notice of a resolution to be moved at a meeting or (where forms of proxy are sent out with the notices) to send a form of proxy with a notice to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting, any resolution or form of proxy by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting, whether or not the Company is aware of such omission or non-receipt.

15 Proceedings at General Meetings

- 15.1 No business, other than the appointment of a chairperson may be transacted at any meeting unless the requisite quorum is present in accordance with the Law, save that, for the avoidance of doubt, a single person holding or representing shares by proxy of more than one member shall solely for the purpose of determining a quorum under the Law be counted as a person in respect of each member represented or proxy held (save that persons appointed as proxies of the same member shall not be counted as two separate persons, solely for the purposes of counting the quorum).
- 15.2 If such a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting such a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting, if convened by or upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. If otherwise convened, it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or such other day, time and place as the chairperson may determine or as otherwise may be specified in the original notice of meeting. If at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within five minutes from the time appointed for the holding of the meeting (or such longer interval as the chairperson may think fit to allow) or if during such adjourned meeting a quorum ceases to be present, such adjourned meeting shall be dissolved.
- 15.3 At any general meeting, the chairperson of the board or, if they are absent or unwilling, one of the other directors who is appointed for that purpose by the directors present or (failing appointment by the directors present) by the members present in person, by proxy or by corporate representative, shall preside as chairperson of the meeting. If none of the directors are present or if the directors present are unwilling to preside, the members present in person, by proxy or by corporate representative and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to preside as chairperson of the meeting.
- 15.4 The chairperson may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall, if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place. When a meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, at least seven days' notice shall be given specifying the day, time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.

15.5 A director of the Company shall be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the Company regardless of whether that director is a member of the Company or a holder of the relevant class of shares.

15.6 A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the Law, a poll may be demanded:

(a) by the chairperson; or

(b) by at least two members having the right to vote on the resolution; or

(c) by a member or members representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote on the resolution; and a demand by a person as proxy or a representative (in the case of a corporate member) for a member shall be the same as a demand by the member.

15.7 Unless a poll is duly demanded (and not subsequently withdrawn) a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has or has not been passed or has been passed with a particular majority or an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

15.8 The demand for a poll may be withdrawn before the poll is taken but only with the consent of the chairperson; a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.

15.9 A poll shall be taken as the chairperson directs and they may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and fix a day, time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

15.10 Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the Law, in the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairperson shall not be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote they may have.

15.11 A poll demanded on the election of a chairperson or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either forthwith or at such day, time and place as the chairperson directs not being more than 30 days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.

- 15.12 No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the day, time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the day, time and place at which the poll is to be taken.
- 15.13 There shall be no requirement to make available for inspection at any time during a meeting a list of names, addresses and shareholdings of members.

16 Votes of Members

- 16.1 Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any shares:
- (a) on a show of hands every member present in person or by proxy or by representative shall have one vote; and
 - (b) on a poll every member present in person or by proxy or by representative shall have one vote for every share of which they are the holder, proxy or representative.
- 16.2 In the case of joint holders the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders, and seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names of the holders stand in the Register in respect of the relevant share.
- 16.3 A member in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction (whether in Guernsey or elsewhere) in matters concerning mental disorder may vote, whether by a show of hands or by a poll, by their receiver, curator or other person authorised in that behalf appointed by that court, and any such receiver, curator or other person may vote by proxy. Evidence to the satisfaction of the board of the authority of the person claiming to exercise the right to vote shall be deposited at the office, or at such other place as is specified in accordance with the articles for the deposit of instruments of proxy, before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting or the holding of a poll at which the right to vote is to be exercised and in default the right to vote shall not be exercisable.
- 16.4 Unless the board otherwise decides, no member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the Company, either in person or by proxy or by representative, in respect of any share held by them unless all calls and other sums presently payable by them in respect of that share have been paid.
- 16.5 No person shall be entitled to vote in respect of any shares that they have acquired unless they have been registered in the Register as their holder.
- 16.6 No objection shall be raised to the entitlement of any person to vote as they did except at the meeting or adjourned meeting or poll at which the vote objected to is or may be tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting or poll shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairperson of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive. The Company shall not be obliged to ascertain whether a proxy or representative of a corporation has voted in accordance with a member's instructions and the failure of a proxy or representative to do so shall not vitiate the decision or the meeting or adjourned meeting or poll on any resolution.

- 16.7 A member may appoint another person as their proxy to exercise all or any of their rights to attend and to speak and vote at a meeting of the Company. A proxy need not be a member. A member may appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion, provided that each proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by them. When two or more valid but differing appointments of proxy are delivered or received for the same share for use at the same meeting, the one which is last validly delivered or received (regardless of its date or the date of its execution) shall be treated as replacing and revoking the other or others as regards that share. If the Company is unable to determine which appointment was last validly delivered or received, none of them shall be treated as valid in respect of that share.
- 16.8 An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in any usual common form, or as approved by the directors (including electronic form), and shall be executed by or on behalf of the appointor or in either case otherwise authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine, including by electronic means.
- 16.9 The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is executed, or a notarially certified copy of such power or authority, shall be deposited at the office or at such other place as is specified for that purpose in the notice of meeting or in the instrument of proxy issued by the Company not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote or, in the case of a poll taken more than 48 hours after it was demanded, not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, or in the case of a poll taken not forthwith but not more than 48 hours after it was demanded, at the time at which it was demanded (in each case, unless otherwise determined by the board, excluding any day which is not a Business Day) as is provided in the Law, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid. In calculating the periods referred to in this article no account shall be taken of any part of a day which is not a Business Day.
- 16.10 In relation to any proxy in electronic form the directors may prescribe the method of delivery and the method of determining the time at which the proxy is treated as received by the Company. The directors may treat any electronic proxy which purports to be or is expressed to be sent on behalf of a holder as sufficient evidence of the authority of the person sending that instruction to send it on behalf of the holder.
- 16.11 A vote given or poll demanded by proxy or by the duly authorised representative of a body corporate shall be valid notwithstanding the previous determination of the authority of the person voting or demanding a poll unless notice of the determination was received by the Company at the office or at such other place at which the instrument of proxy was duly deposited before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote is given or the poll demanded or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for taking the poll.
- 16.12 Any instrument appointing a proxy may be given by email or any other electronic method (including an instruction or message under the Uncertificated System) to the address of the Company or person nominated by the Company and specified for that purpose in the notice of meeting or in the instrument of proxy issued by the Company and, subject to the need to deposit any power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which an instrument of proxy is executed, an instrument so given shall be deemed to be duly deposited. However, any power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which an instrument of proxy is executed, or a notarially certified copy of such power or authority shall not be given by email or any other electronic method.

- 16.13 Notwithstanding anything contained in these articles and subject to such being permissible under the Law, the directors may elect to provide a facility for using electronic voting and polling by the holders for any purpose deemed appropriate by the directors, including without limitation, the polling of holders and electronic voting by holders at any general meeting.

17 Corporations Acting by Representatives

Any corporation which is a member of the Company may, by resolution of its board or other governing body, authorise such person or persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or at any meeting of any class of members of the Company, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which they represent as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual member of the Company. A corporation present at any meeting by such representative shall be deemed for the purposes of these articles to be present in person.

18 Resolutions in Writing

- 18.1 Anything that may be done by resolution passed at a general meeting of the Company or at a meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the Company may be done by resolution in writing in accordance with the provisions of the Law. A resolution in writing may be executed in one or more counterparts.
- 18.2 Subject to the Law, a resolution proposed as a written resolution may specify a date and time (whether greater or lesser than any period for the time being specified by the Law) by which the proposed written resolution lapses if it has not been passed by the requisite majority of eligible members. No instrument received or signature appended thereto after such time shall be counted.
- 18.3 The accidental omission to give notice of any proposed resolution in writing to, or the non-receipt of notice of a resolution in writing by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate any resolution or any proposed resolution.

19 Number of Directors

Unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution, the number of directors (other than alternate directors) shall not be less than two nor more than eight in number.

20 Alternate Directors

- 20.1 Any director (other than an alternate director) may appoint any other director, or any other person, to be an alternate director and may remove from office an alternate director so appointed by them.
- 20.2 An alternate director shall (subject to his giving to the Company a postal address within Guernsey or the United Kingdom and, if applicable, an address in relation to which electronic communications may be received by them) be entitled to receive notice of all meetings of directors and meetings of committees of directors of which their appointor is a member, to attend, be counted towards a quorum and vote at any such meeting at which the director appointing them is not personally present, and generally to perform all the functions of their appointor as a director in their absence but shall not be entitled to receive any remuneration from the Company for their services as an alternate director.

- 20.3 An alternate director shall cease to be an alternate director if their appointor ceases to be a director or dies; but, if a director retires by rotation or otherwise vacates office and is elected or deemed to have been elected at the meeting at which he retires, any appointment of an alternate director made by him which was in force immediately prior to his retirement shall continue after his election. The appointment of an alternate director shall also automatically cease on the happening of any event which, if he were a director, would cause him to vacate office.
- 20.4 Any appointment or removal of an alternate director shall be by notice to the Company signed by the director making or revoking the appointment or in any other manner approved by the directors.
- 20.5 Save as otherwise provided in these articles, an alternate director shall be deemed for all purposes to be a director and shall alone be responsible for their own acts and defaults and they shall not be deemed to be the agent of the director appointing them.

21 Powers of Directors

- 21.1 Subject to the provisions of the Law, the memorandum and the articles and to any directions given by special resolution, the business of the Company shall be managed by the directors who may exercise all the powers of the Company in any part of the world. No alteration of the memorandum or articles and no such direction shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given. The powers given by this article shall not be limited by any special power given to the directors by these articles and a meeting of directors at which a quorum is present may exercise all the powers exercisable by the directors. The directors may, by power of attorney signed by any one or more persons duly authorised, appoint any person, either generally or in respect of any specific matter, to represent the Company, act in its name and execute documents on its behalf.
- 21.2 Subject as hereinafter provided, the directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow or raise money (including the power to borrow for the purpose of redeeming shares) and secure any debt or obligation of or binding on the Company in any manner including by the issue of debentures (perpetual or otherwise) and to secure the repayment of any money borrowed, raised or owing by mortgage, charge, pledge or lien upon the whole or any part of the Company's undertaking, property or assets (whether present or future) and also by a similar mortgage charge pledge or lien to secure and guarantee the performance of any obligation or liability undertaken by the Company or any third party.

22 Delegation of Directors' Powers

The directors may delegate any of their powers to any committee consisting of one or more directors and (if thought fit) one or more other persons. They may also delegate to any managing director or any other director (whether holding any other executive office or not) such of their powers as they consider desirable to be exercised by them. Any such delegation may be made subject to any conditions the directors may impose, and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers and may be revoked or altered, but no person dealing in good faith and without notice of such revocation or variation shall be affected by it. Subject to any such conditions, the proceedings of a committee with two or more members shall be governed by the articles regulating the proceedings of directors so far as they are capable of applying.

23 Appointment and Retirement of Directors

23.1 Subject to the Law and these articles, the directors shall have power at any time, and from time to time, without sanction of the Company in general meeting, to appoint any person to be a director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional director, but so that the total number of directors shall not at any time exceed the maximum number fixed by these articles. Any director so appointed shall hold office only until the next following annual general meeting and shall then be eligible for election, and unless so elected shall vacate office at the conclusion of such meeting.

23.2 Subject to the Law and these articles, the Company may by ordinary resolution:

- (a) appoint any person as a director either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director, but so that the total number of directors shall not at any time exceed the maximum number fixed by these articles; and
- (b) remove any person from office as a director, without prejudice to any claim which such director may have for damages for breach of any contract of service or letter of appointment between them and the Company, and there shall be no requirement for the appointment or removal of two or more directors to be considered separately.

23.3 A person must not be appointed a director unless they have in writing consented to being a director of the Company and declared that they are not ineligible under the Law.

23.4 A director may resign from office as a director by giving notice in writing to that effect to the Company at its office, which notice shall be effective upon such date as may be specified in the notice, failing which upon delivery to the office, without prejudice to any claim which such director may have for damages for breach of any contract of service or letter of appointment between them and the Company.

23.5 At each annual general meeting of the Company, each director shall retire from office and each director may offer himself for election or re-election by the members.

23.6 A director who retires at an annual general meeting may, if willing to act, be reappointed. If they are not reappointed they shall retain office until the meeting appoints someone in their place, or if it does not do so, until the end of the meeting.

23.7 If the Company at the meeting at which a director retires does not fill the vacancy, the retiring director shall, if willing to act, be deemed to have been reappointed unless at the meeting it is resolved not to fill the vacancy or unless a resolution for the reappointment of the director is put to the meeting and lost.

- 23.8 There is no age limit at which a director is required to retire.
- 23.9 Upon termination of a director's appointment for any reason, they shall cease to be a member of any committee.

24 Disqualification and Removal of Directors

- 24.1 A director shall not be required to hold any qualification shares.
- 24.2 The office of a director shall be vacated if:
- (a) the relevant director ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Law or they cease to be eligible to be a director in accordance with the Law; or
 - (b) the relevant director has their affairs declared en désastre, becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with their creditors generally or otherwise has any judgment executed on any of their assets; or
 - (c) the relevant director becomes of unsound mind or incapable or an order is made by a court having jurisdiction (whether in Guernsey or elsewhere) in matters concerning mental disorder for their detention or for the appointment of a receiver, curator or other person to exercise powers with respect to their property or affairs; or
 - (d) the relevant director shall have absented himself from meetings of the directors for a consecutive period of six months and the directors resolve that their office shall be vacated; or
 - (e) the relevant director dies; or
 - (f) the relevant director resigns their office by notice to the Company in accordance with article 23.4; or
 - (g) the Company so resolves in accordance with article 23.2(b); or
 - (h) where there are more than two directors, all the other directors request them to resign in writing.

25 Remuneration of Directors

- 25.1 Unless otherwise determined by the Company in general meeting by ordinary resolution, the directors (other than alternate directors) shall be remunerated for their services at such rate as the directors shall determine provided that the aggregate amount of such fees shall not exceed £2,000,000 per annum (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, any remuneration of a director under or in connection with an executive service contract).
- 25.2 The directors may grant special remuneration to any director who, being so called upon, shall be willing to render any special or extra services to the Company. Such special remuneration may be made payable to such director in addition to or in substitution for their ordinary remuneration as a director and may be made payable by a lump sum or by way of salary or commission or by any or all of those models or otherwise.

26 Directors' Expenses

The directors may be paid:

- (a) all reasonable travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with their attendance at meetings of directors or committees of directors or general meetings or separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the Company or otherwise in connection with the discharge of their duties; and
- (b) all reasonable expenses properly incurred by them in seeking independent professional advice on any matter that concerns them in the furtherance of their duties as a director of the Company.

27 Directors' Appointments and Interests

- 27.1 Subject to the provisions of the Law, the directors may appoint one or more of their number to the office of managing director or to any other executive office in the Company and may enter into an agreement or arrangement with any director for their employment by the Company or for the provision by them of any services outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a director. A director holding such office or employment is referred to as an executive director. Any such appointment, agreement or arrangement may be made upon such terms as the directors determine and they may revoke such appointment (but so that such revocation shall be without prejudice to any rights or claims which the person whose appointment is revoked may have against the Company by reason of such revocation) and remunerate any such director for their services as they think fit. Any appointment of a director to an executive office shall terminate if they cease to be a director but without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of the contract of service between the director and the Company. An executive director shall (subject to the provisions of any contract between them and the Company) be subject to the same provisions as to resignation and removal as other directors, not be exempt from retirement by rotation, and cease to be a director if they cease for any reason to hold the office or employment by virtue of which they are termed an executive director.
- 27.2 Subject to and in accordance with the Law, a director must, immediately after becoming aware of the fact that they are interested in a transaction or proposed transaction with the Company, disclose that fact to the directors.
- 27.3 For the purposes of the preceding article a general disclosure given to the directors to the effect that a director has an interest (as director, officer, employee, member or otherwise) in a party and is to be regarded as interested in any transaction which may after the date of the disclosure be entered into with that party shall be deemed to be sufficient disclosure of their interest in any such transaction or arrangement.
- 27.4 The requirement in article 27.2 above does not apply if the transaction proposed is between a director and the Company, or if the Company is entering into the transaction in the ordinary course of business on usual terms.
- 27.5 A director may not vote or be counted in the quorum on a resolution of the board or committee of the board concerning a contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal to which the Company is or is to be a party and in which they have an interest which (together with any interest of any person connected with them) is, to their knowledge, a material interest (otherwise than by virtue of their interest in shares or debentures or other securities of or otherwise in or through the Company) but, in the absence of some other material interest than is mentioned below, this prohibition does not apply to a resolution concerning any of the following matters:

- (a) the giving of a guarantee, security or indemnity in respect of money lent or obligations incurred by them or any other person at the request of or for the benefit of the Company or any of its subsidiaries;
- (b) the giving of a guarantee, security or indemnity in respect of a debt or obligation of the Company or any of its subsidiaries for which they themselves have assumed responsibility in whole or in part, either alone or jointly with others, under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of security;
- (c) a contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal concerning an offer of shares, debentures or other securities of the Company or any of its subsidiaries for subscription or purchase, in which offer they are or may be entitled to participate as a holder of securities or in the underwriting or sub-underwriting of which they are to participate;
- (d) a contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal to which the Company is or is to be a party concerning another company (including any subsidiary of the Company) in which they (and any persons connected with them) are interested and whether as an officer, shareholder, creditor or otherwise, if they (and any persons connected with them) do not to their knowledge hold an interest in shares representing one per cent. or more of any class of the equity share capital of or the voting rights in the relevant company (or of any other company through which their interest is derived);
- (e) a contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal for the benefit of employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries which only awards them a privilege or benefit generally accorded to the employees to whom it relates; and
- (f) a contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal concerning the purchase or maintenance of any insurance policy for the benefit of directors or for the benefit of persons including directors.

27.6 For the purposes of this article a person shall be treated as being connected with a director if that person is:

- (a) a spouse, child (under the age of eighteen) or step child (under the age of eighteen) of the director; or
- (b) an associated body corporate which is a company in which the director alone, or with connected persons, is directly or indirectly beneficially interested in 20 per cent. or more of the value of the equity share capital or is entitled (alone or with connected persons) to exercise or control the exercise of more than 20 per cent. of the voting power at general meetings; or

- (c) a trustee (acting in that capacity) of any trust, the beneficiaries of which include the director or persons falling within articles 27.6(a) and 27.6(b) above excluding trustees of an employees' share scheme or pension scheme; or
 - (d) a partner (acting in that capacity) in a partnership with the director or persons in articles 27.6(a) to 27.6(c) above.
- 27.7 A director, notwithstanding their interest, may be counted in the quorum present at any meeting at which they or any other director is appointed to hold any such office or place of profit under the Company, or at which the terms of any such appointment are arranged or at which any contract between the director and the Company are considered, and they may vote on any such appointment or arrangement other than their own appointment or the arrangement of the terms thereof. Where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment (including without limitation fixing or varying the terms of appointment or its termination) of two or more directors to offices or places of profit with the Company or a company in which the Company is interested, such proposals shall be divided and a separate resolution considered in relation to each director. In such case each of the directors concerned (if not otherwise debarred from voting under these provisions) is entitled to vote (and be counted in the quorum) in respect of each resolution except that concerning their own appointment.
- 27.8 A director may hold any other office or place of profit under the Company (other than the Auditor) in conjunction with their office of director for such period and on such terms (as to remuneration and otherwise) as the board may determine and no director or intending director shall be disqualified by their office from contracting with the Company either with regard to their tenure of any such office or place of profit or as vendor, purchaser or otherwise nor shall any such contract or any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profits realised by any such contract or arrangement by reason of such director holding that office or of the fiduciary relationship thereby established.
- 27.9 Any director may act by himself or their firm in a professional capacity for the Company (other than Auditor) and they or their firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if they were not a director.
- 27.10 Any director may continue to be or become a director, managing director, manager or other officer or member of any company promoted by the Company or in which the Company may be interested, and any such director shall not be accountable to the Company for any remuneration or other benefits received by them as director, managing director, manager or other officer or member of any such company. The directors may exercise the voting power conferred by the shares in any other company held or owned by the Company or exercisable by them as directors of such other company, in such manner in all respects as they think fit (including the exercise thereof in favour of any resolution appointing themselves or any of them directors, managing directors, managers or other officers of such company, or voting or providing for the payment of remuneration to themselves as directors, managing directors, managers or other officers of such company) and any director of the Company may vote in favour of the exercise of such voting rights in the manner aforesaid, notwithstanding that they may be or be about to be appointed a director, managing director, manager or other officer of such company, and as such is or may become interested in the exercise of such voting rights in the manner aforesaid.

27.11 If a question arises at a meeting as to the materiality of a director's interest (other than the interest of the chairperson of the meeting) or as to the entitlement of a director (other than the chairperson) to vote or to be counted in a quorum and the question is not resolved by their voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting or being counted in the quorum, the question shall be referred to the chairperson and their ruling in relation to the director concerned is conclusive and binding on all concerned.

27.12 If a question arises at a meeting as to the materiality of the interest of the chairperson of the meeting or as to the entitlement of the chairperson to vote or be counted in a quorum and the question is not resolved by their voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting or being counted in the quorum, the question shall be decided by resolution of the directors or committee members present at the meeting (excluding the chairperson) whose majority vote is conclusive and binding on all concerned.

28 Directors' Gratuities and Pensions

The directors may provide benefits, whether by the payment of gratuities or pensions or by insurance or otherwise, for any director who has held but no longer holds any executive office or employment with the Company or with any body corporate which is or has been a subsidiary of the Company or a predecessor in business of the Company or of any such subsidiary, and for any member of their family (including a spouse and a former spouse) or any person who is or who was dependent on them, and may (as well before as after they cease to hold such office or employment) contribute to any fund and pay premiums for the purchase or provision of any such benefit.

29 Proceedings of Directors

29.1 Subject to the provisions of these articles, the directors may regulate their proceedings as they think fit. A director may, and the secretary at the request of a director shall, call a meeting of the directors. Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes the chairperson shall not have a second or casting vote. An alternate director shall be entitled to a separate vote for each director for whom they act as alternate and who is not present, in addition to their own vote (if they are a director).

29.2 The quorum for the transaction of the business of the directors may be fixed by the directors and unless so fixed at any other number shall be two. A person who is an alternate director shall be counted in the quorum but any director acting as an alternate director shall only be counted as one for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.

29.3 Any director enabled to participate in the proceedings of a meeting by means of a communication device (including, but not limited to, telephone, video or audio conferencing facilities or other means of real time electronic, digital or analogue communication, or some other form of communication) which allows all of the other directors present at such meeting to hear or read what is said or communicated by such director at all times and such director to hear or read what is said or communicated by all other directors present at such meeting at all times (in each case whether in person or by means of any such type of communication device), shall be deemed to be present at such meeting, shall be counted when reckoning

- a quorum, and shall be entitled to vote. Provided that there is at least one director physically present in Guernsey at the time of such meeting, the meeting shall be deemed to take place in Guernsey. Where no director at such meeting is physically present in Guernsey at the time of the meeting, the chairperson of the meeting shall determine (in their sole discretion), from amongst the place(s) the directors present at the meeting were physically present at at the time of the meeting, the place the meeting shall be deemed to have taken place at.
- 29.4 The continuing directors or the only continuing director may act notwithstanding any vacancies in their number, but, if the number of directors is less than the number fixed as the quorum, the continuing directors or director may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting, but not for any other purpose. If there are no directors able or willing to act, then any two members may summon a general meeting for the purpose of appointing directors.
- 29.5 The directors may appoint one of their number to be the chairperson of the board of directors and may at any time remove them from that office. Unless they are unwilling to do so, the director so appointed shall preside at every meeting of directors at which they are present. But if there is no director holding that office, or if the director holding it is unwilling to preside or is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the directors present may appoint one of their number to be chairperson of the meeting.
- 29.6 All acts done by a meeting of directors, or of a committee of directors, or by a person acting as a director or by an alternate director shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of any director or alternate director or that any of them were disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a director and had been entitled to vote.
- 29.7 A resolution in writing signed by all the directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of directors or (as the case may be) a committee of directors duly convened and held and may consist of several documents in the like form each signed by one or more directors or alternate directors; but a resolution signed by an alternate director need not also be signed by their appointor and, if it is signed by a director who has appointed an alternate director, it need not be signed by the alternate director in that capacity.

30 Seals

- 30.1 The common seal (if any) shall only be used by the authority of the directors or of a committee of directors authorised by the directors.
- 30.2 Subject to the provisions of the Law the directors may determine to have an official seal for use in any country, territory or place outside the Island of Guernsey, which shall be a facsimile of the common seal of the Company. Any such official seal shall in addition bear the name of every territory, district or place in which it is to be used.
- 30.3 The directors may determine who shall sign any instrument to which the common seal or any official seal is affixed and, in respect of the common seal, unless otherwise so determined such instrument shall be signed by a director and by the secretary or by a second director. Notwithstanding the foregoing, share certificates need not be signed or, if signed, a signature may be applied by mechanical or other means. A person affixing the common seal or any official seal to any instrument shall certify thereon the date upon which and the place at which it is affixed (or in the case of a share certificate, on which the seal may be printed). The directors may also decide, either generally or in a particular case, that a signature may be disposed of or affixed with mechanical means.

31 Dividends and Distributions

- 31.1 The Company may reduce its share capital by way of distribution of amounts standing to any capital account of the Company or otherwise as the directors may determine.
- 31.2 Subject to the provisions of the Law and these articles, the Company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends and/or make distributions in accordance with the respective rights of the members and subject to article 31.4 and to any special rights to dividends or distributions or other relevant rights or remedies set out in the terms of issue of any class of shares. No dividend or other distribution shall exceed the amount recommended by the directors.
- 31.3 Subject to the provisions of the Law and these articles, the directors may from time to time pay interim dividends and/or distributions if it appears to them that they are justified by the assets of the Company. If the share capital is divided into different classes, the directors may pay interim dividends and/or distributions on shares which confer deferred or non-preferred rights with regard to dividends or other distributions as well as on shares which confer preferential rights with regard to dividends, but no interim dividend or other distribution shall be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend or other distributions is in arrears. The directors may also pay, at intervals settled by them, any dividend or other distribution payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the assets of the Company justify the payment. Provided the directors act in good faith, they shall not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend or other distribution on any shares having deferred or non-preferred rights.
- 31.4 Except as otherwise provided by the rights attached to shares, all dividends or other distributions shall be declared and paid pro rata according to the respective numbers of shares held by shareholders of the relevant class on which the dividend or other distribution is paid. Except as otherwise provided by these articles or the rights attached to any shares, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid on the shares in respect of which the dividend is paid, but no amount paid on a share in advance of the date upon which a call is payable shall be treated as paid on the share for the purpose of this article. All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend or other distribution as from a particular date, that share shall rank for dividend or other distribution accordingly. Any resolution declaring a dividend or a distribution on a share, whether a resolution of the Company in general meeting or a resolution of the directors, may specify that the same shall be payable to the person registered as the holder of the shares at the close of business on a particular date notwithstanding that it may be a date prior to that on which the resolution is passed and thereupon the dividend or distribution shall be payable to such persons in accordance with their respective holdings so registered, but without prejudice to the rights inter se in respect of such dividend or distribution of transferors and transferees of any such shares.

- 31.5 A general meeting declaring a dividend or other distribution may, upon the recommendation of the directors, direct that it shall be satisfied wholly or partly by the distribution of assets and if the shares in respect of which such a non-cash distribution is paid are uncertificated, any shares in the Company which are issued as a non-cash distribution in respect of them must be uncertificated. Where any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution, the directors may settle the same and in particular may issue fractional certificates and fix the value for distribution of any assets and may determine that cash shall be paid to any member upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of members and may vest any assets in trustees.
- 31.6 Any dividend or other distribution or other moneys payable in respect of a share may be paid by electronic transfer or cheque sent by post to the registered address of the person entitled or, if two or more persons are the holders of the share or are jointly entitled to it by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder, to the registered address of the one of those persons who is first named in the register of members or to such person and to such address as the person or persons entitled may in writing direct (and in default of which direction to that one of the persons jointly so entitled as the directors shall in their absolute discretion determine). Every cheque shall be made payable to the order of the person or persons entitled or to such other person as the person or persons entitled may in writing direct and payment of the cheque shall be a good discharge to the Company. Any joint holder or other person jointly entitled to a share as aforesaid may give receipts for any dividend or other distribution or other moneys payable in respect of the share. In respect of shares in uncertificated form, where the Company is authorised to do so by or on behalf of the holder or joint holders in such manner as the Company shall from time to time consider sufficient, the Company may also pay any such dividend, other distribution or other monies payable by means of the relevant system concerned (subject always to the facilities and requirements of that relevant system). Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, in respect of shares in uncertificated form, such payment may include the sending by the Company or by any person on its behalf of an instruction to the operator of the relevant system to credit the cash memorandum account of the holder or joint holders or, if permitted by the Company, of such person as the holder or joint holders may in writing direct.
- 31.7 The directors may deduct from any dividend or other distribution, or other moneys payable to any member on or in respect of a share, all sums of money (if any) presently payable by them to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of the Company. Such sums may be applied by the Company in paying the amounts owing in respect of the relevant shares.
- 31.8 No dividend or other distribution or other moneys payable in respect of a share shall bear interest against the Company unless otherwise provided by the rights attached to the share.
- 31.9 All unclaimed dividends or other distributions may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed and the Company shall not be constituted a trustee thereof. Any dividend or other distribution which has remained unclaimed for twelve years from the date when it became due for payment shall, if the directors so resolve, be forfeited and cease to remain owing by the Company.
- 31.10 The directors are empowered to create reserves before recommending or declaring any dividend or distribution. The directors may also carry forward any profits which they think prudent not to divide.

32 Accounts and Audit

- 32.1 No member shall (as such) have any right of inspecting any accounting records or other book or document of the Company except as conferred by the Law or authorised by the directors or by these articles.
- 32.2 The Company may appoint Auditors to examine the accounts and report thereon in accordance with the Law.

33 Capitalisation of Profits

The board may with the authority of an ordinary resolution of the Company:

- (a) subject as hereinafter provided, resolve to capitalise any undistributed assets of the Company not required for paying any preferential dividend or other distribution;
- (b) appropriate the sum resolved to be capitalised to the members in proportion to the amounts of the shares (whether or not fully paid) held by them respectively which would entitle them to participate in a distribution of that sum if the shares were fully paid and the sum were distributable and apply such sum on their behalf either in or towards paying up the amounts (if any) for the time being unpaid on any shares held by them respectively, or in paying up in full unissued shares or debentures of the Company in an amount equal to that sum, and allot the shares or debentures credited as fully paid to those members, or as they may direct, in those proportions, or partly in one way and partly in the other;
- (c) make such provision by the issue of fractional certificates or by payment in cash or otherwise as they determine in the case of shares or debentures becoming distributable under this article in fractions, as set out in article 12.2; and
- (d) authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the members concerned into an agreement with the Company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid, of any shares or debentures to which they are entitled upon such capitalisation, any agreement made under such authority being binding on all such members.

34 Notices

- 34.1 Any notice to be given to or by any person pursuant to the articles shall be in writing (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall be deemed to include a notice given in electronic form) except that a notice calling a meeting of the directors or a committee of directors need not be in writing.
- 34.2 The Company may give any notice to a member either:
- (a) personally; or
 - (b) by sending it by post in a prepaid envelope addressed to the member at their registered address or by leaving it at that address; or
 - (c) by sending it by electronic means (other than by transmission by facsimile) to such electronic address from time to time notified to the Company by that member, or by means of a website in accordance with the Law and a member is deemed to agree to the receipt of documents by electronic means in any particular electronic form and to the receipt of documents by means of a website.

- 34.3 In the case of joint holders of a share, notices shall be given to the joint holder whose name stands first in the register of members in respect of the joint holding and notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the joint holders.
- 34.4 A member present, either in person or by proxy or by representative, at any meeting of the Company or of the holders of any class of shares in the Company shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where requisite, of the purposes for which it was called.
- 34.5 Every person who becomes entitled to a share shall be bound by any notice in respect of that share which, before their name is entered in the register of members, has been duly given to a person from which they derive their title, provided that such person shall not be bound by any such notice given by the Company under article 4.
- 34.6 Service of any notice by post shall be proved by showing the date of posting, the address thereon and the fact of prepayment. A notice addressed to a member at their registered address or at their address for service is, if sent by post, deemed to be given 48 hours after it has been posted. In calculating the time of deemed delivery for the purpose of this article, no account shall be taken of Sundays or Bank Holidays in Guernsey or the United Kingdom.
- 34.7 Any notice not sent by post, but which is left at a registered address or at an address for service is deemed to be given on the day it is left.
- 34.8 Any notice sent by electronic means shall be deemed to be received on the day that it is sent. In proving service of a notice sent by electronic means it shall be sufficient to show that the electronic message was properly addressed to the electronic address from time to time held by the Company for that member, and that no error message has been received in relation to the notice by the Company.
- 34.9 Any notice served by an advertisement or notice published in a newspaper or La Gazette Officielle is deemed to be given to all members and other persons entitled to receive it at noon on the day when the advertisement or notice appears or, where an advertisement or notice is given by more than one advertisement or notice and the advertisements or notices appear on different days, at noon on the last of the days when the advertisements or notices appear.
- 34.10 Upon supply to the Company of such evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show their title to such share, a notice may be given by the Company to the persons entitled to a share in consequence of the death, bankruptcy or incapacity of a member by sending or delivering it, in any manner authorised by these articles for the giving of notice to a member, addressed to them by name, or by the title of representatives of the deceased, or trustee of the bankrupt or curator of the member or by any like description at the address, if any, supplied for that purpose by the persons claiming to be so entitled. Until such evidence and an address has been supplied, a notice may be given in any manner in which it might have been given if the death, bankruptcy or incapacity had not occurred. If more than one person would be entitled to receive a notice in consequence of the death, bankruptcy or incapacity of a member, notice given to any one of such persons shall be sufficient notice to all such persons.

- 34.11 Any member whose address in the register is not within Guernsey or the United Kingdom, and who gives to the Company a postal address within Guernsey or the United Kingdom at which notices may be served upon him, shall be entitled to have notices served upon him at such postal address, but otherwise no such person shall be entitled to receive any notice from the Company. Any member whose address in the register is not within Guernsey or the United Kingdom and who gives to the Company an address for the purpose of receipt of communications in electronic form may, at the absolute discretion of the Board, have notices served upon him at such address. None of the provisions of these Articles shall oblige the directors to send any communications to its overseas members where they believe that to do so would or might involve the contravention of the laws of any territory.

35 Winding Up

- 35.1 Upon a winding up of the Company the surplus assets of the Company shall be divided amongst the holders of the Ordinary Shares pro rata to their holdings of Ordinary Shares.
- 35.2 On a winding-up the liquidator may, with the authority of a special resolution and any other sanction required by the Law, divide amongst the members in specie the whole or any part of the assets of the Company, and the liquidator or, where there is no liquidator, the directors, may for that purpose value any assets and determine how the division shall be carried out as between the members or different classes of members (any such division shall be in accordance with the existing rights of the members) and, with the like sanction, may vest the whole or any part of the assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the members as he or they may determine, but no member shall be compelled to accept any assets upon which there is a liability.
- 35.3 Where the Company is proposed to be or is in the course of being wound up and the whole or part of its business or property is proposed to be transferred or sold to another company the liquidator may, with the sanction of an ordinary resolution, receive in compensation shares, policies or other like interests for distribution or may enter into any other arrangements whereby the members may, in lieu of receiving cash, shares, policies or other like interests, participate in the profits of or receive any other benefit from the transferee.

- 36.1 Without prejudice to any indemnity to which they may otherwise be entitled, every person who is or was a director, alternate director or secretary and their respective heirs and executors shall be fully indemnified in so far as the Law allows, out of the assets and profits of the Company from and against all actions, expenses and liabilities which they or their respective heirs or executors may incur by reason of any contract entered into or any act in or about the execution of their respective offices or trusts, except such (if any) as would otherwise attach to them in connection with any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the Company and none of them shall be answerable for the acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of the others of them or for joining in any receipt for the sake of conformity or for any bankers or other person with whom any moneys or assets of the Company may be lodged or deposited for safe custody or for any bankers or other persons into whose hands any money or assets of the Company may come or for any defects of title of the Company to any property purchased or for insufficiency or deficiency of or defect in title of the Company to any security upon which any moneys of the Company shall be placed out or invested or for any loss, misfortune or damage resulting from any such cause as aforesaid or which may happen in or about the execution of their respective offices or trusts except should the same happen by or through their own negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the Company, provided that this article shall be deemed not to provide for, or entitle any person to, indemnification to the extent that it would cause this article, or any part of it, to be treated as void under the Law.

- 36.2 Without prejudice to any other provisions of the articles, the directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of a person who is or was a director, alternate director or secretary of the Company or of a company which is or was a subsidiary undertaking of the Company or in which the Company has or had an interest (whether direct or indirect), indemnifying them against liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust or other liability which may lawfully be insured against by the Company (including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, insurance against any costs, charges, expenses, losses or liabilities suffered or incurred by such persons in respect of any act or omission in the actual or purported execution and/or discharge of their duties and/or the exercise or purported exercise of their powers and discretions and/or otherwise in relation to or in connection with their duties, powers or offices in relation to the Company or any such other body).

37 Inspection of Records

- 37.1 Subject to the Law, a director shall be entitled at any time to inspect the register of members, the minutes of proceedings at general meetings, the minutes of proceedings at directors' meetings, the register of directors, the register of secretaries, the index of members (if any), copies of all resolutions of members passed otherwise than at general meetings and the accounting records.
- 37.2 Subject to the Law, a member shall be entitled to inspect the Register, the minutes of proceedings at general meetings, the register of directors, any register of secretaries and the index of members (if any) and copies of all resolutions of members passed otherwise than at general meetings.
- 37.3 The rights of inspection shall be exercisable during ordinary business hours

38 Certain US and US-related Tax Matters

- 38.1 Without prejudice to article 4.11 the Company is authorised to take any action it determines is desirable to comply with FATCA and any Similar Laws, and may enter into an agreement with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service or the taxing and revenue services of any other country. The Company shall not pay any additional amounts to any person in respect of any withholding of taxes, including those relating to FATCA or any Similar Laws.
- 38.2 The Company is not required to make available the information necessary for any person to make a so-called "qualified electing fund" election under US tax law.

39 Scrip Dividends

- 39.1 The provisions of this article 39 are subject always to the requirements of the Law.
- 39.2 The board may, pursuant to section 306 of the Law or if authorised by an ordinary resolution of the Company, offer any holders of any particular class of shares (excluding treasury

- shares) the right to elect to receive further shares (whether or not of that class), credited as fully paid, instead of cash in respect of all or part of any dividend (a Scrip Dividend) in accordance of this article 39.
- 39.3 The ordinary resolution (if applicable) may specify a particular dividend (whether or not already declared) or may specify all or any dividends declared within a specified period, but such period may not end later than the conclusions of the third annual general meeting of the Company to be held following the date of the meeting at which the ordinary resolution is passed.
- 39.4 The basis of allotment shall be decided by the board so that, as nearly as may be considered convenient, the value of the further shares, including any fractional entitlement, is as nearly as possible equal to (but not greater than) the amount of cash dividend (disregarding any tax credit) which would otherwise have been paid.
- 39.5 For the purposes of article 39.4 the value of the further shares shall be calculated by reference to the prevailing average of the middle market quotations for a fully paid share of the relevant class (as published by the London Stock Exchange on the Daily Official List) for the day on which such shares are first quoted "ex" the relevant dividend and the four subsequent dealing days or in such other manner as the directors may decide.
- 39.6 The board shall, after determining the basis of allotment, give notice to the holders of shares of their right of election in respect of the Scrip Dividend and shall specify the procedure to be followed in order to make an election.
- 39.7 The dividend, or that part of it in respect of which an election for the Scrip Dividend is made, shall not be paid and instead further shares of the relevant class shall be allotted in accordance with elections duly made.
- 39.8 The further shares so allotted shall rank pari passu in all respects with the fully paid shares of the same class then in issue except as regards participation in the relevant dividend.
- 39.9 Subject to compliance with the Law, the board may decide that the right to elect for any Scrip Dividend shall not be made available to the members of the Company resident in any territory, where in the opinion of the board, compliance with local laws or regulations would be impossible or unduly onerous or where the Board determines (in its absolute discretion) that for any other reason the offer should not be made to them.
- 39.10 The board may from time to time establish or vary a procedure for election mandates, under which a holder of shares may, in respect of any future dividends for which a right of election pursuant to this article 39 is offered, elect to receive shares in lieu of such dividends on the terms of such mandate.
- 39.11 The board shall not make a Scrip Dividend available unless the Company has sufficient unissued shares to give effect to elections which could be made to receive that scrip dividend.
- 39.12 For the avoidance of doubt, shares allotted pursuant to this article 39 in respect of all or part of any dividend shall not be treated as allotted for cash for the purpose of articles 5.1 and 5.11.
