

★ The Festival of Light social story ★

When you arrive at Longleat you must go through the toll booths to scan your tickets or show your Membership Card, this may be a digital one on your phone.

Sometimes Longleat is busy and you might have to wait
in the car before you can go in.

When you have parked
your car, you can get out safely and explore.

You may see these signs. These signs will tell you about an area. These signs are:

This year's theme is British Icons featuring
Wallace & Gromit and friends.

This year's trail will take you through areas including:

- London
- Shaun the Sheep's home
 - Mossy Bottom Farm
- Wales
- Northern Ireland
- Wallace and Gromit's home
 - West Wallaby Street
- Scotland
- And lots more

These areas can be noisy and crowded

You may be going into the safari park
during your visit.

Safari toll booths

Safari entrance gates

There are lots of signs in the safari park to keep you safe, just like these:

You might stop at African Village to have a walk around.

There are toilets in African Village too. There are no more toilets until you come out of the safari park.

The Watering Hole is a place to get food and drink

Some of the things you might visit on your trip to Longleat

Longleat House

Adventure Castle

Rockin' Rhino ride

Jungle Cruise

Hedge Maze

You might want to go and see some animals in Animal Adventure or Jungle Kingdom.

Here are some animals you could try and spot as you walk round Jungle Kingdom and Animal Adventure:

- Koalas
- Red pandas
- Aardvarks
- Meerkats
- Sloths
- Crocodiles

There are places you might be able to feed some animals too. Some of these areas may be quite noisy.

Sealions on the boat

Lorikeets in the aviary

Deer in the safari park

The lorikeets may land on you

Please do not touch the animals

In The Longhouse there are activities to enjoy throughout the day.

Here you can join in with arts and crafts, try out clay modelling or watch a selection of our favourite Aardman episodes on the big screen.

There are lots of toilets around Longleat, if you can't see a sign then just ask a team member.

The team members have different coloured shirts, but all have the Longleat logo on.

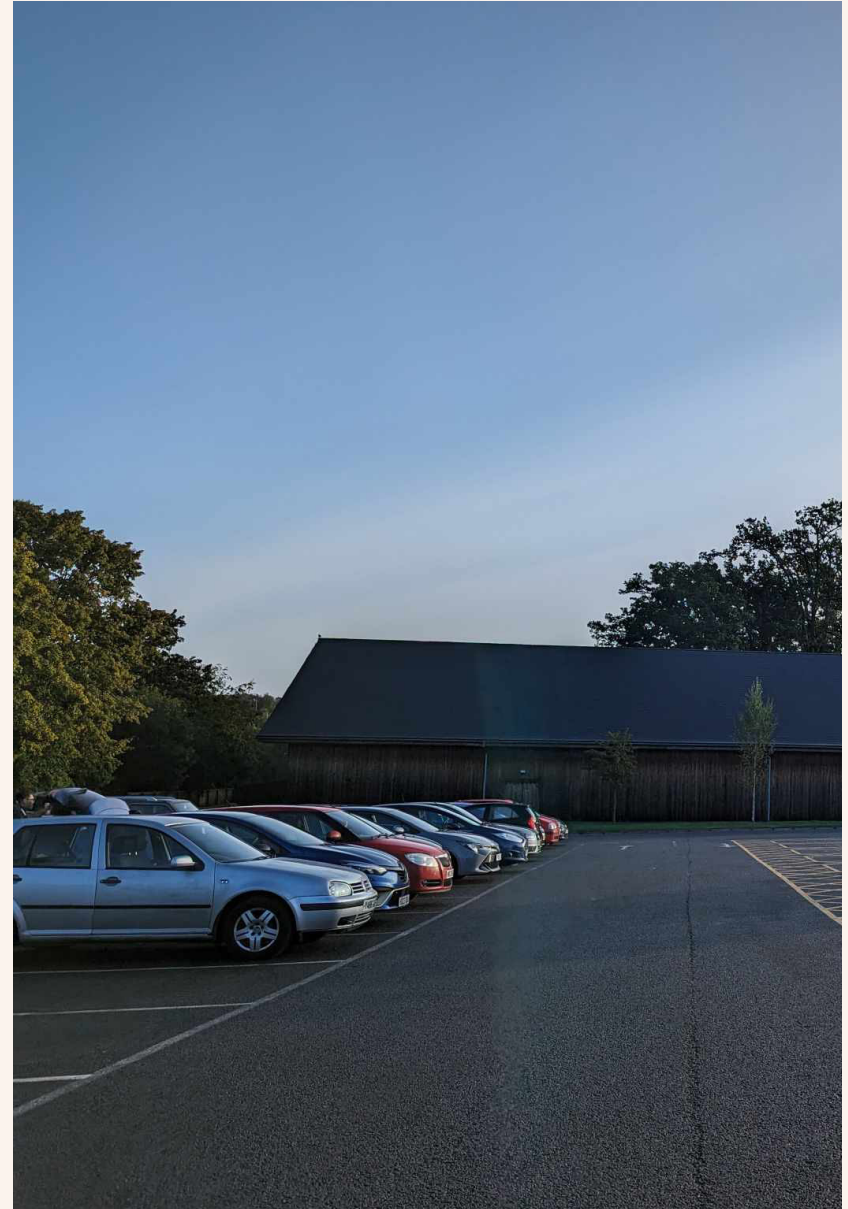

Animal team members – blue shirt

Attractions, shops and guest services team members – burgundy shirt

When you have finished your day exploring then it's time to go back to the car.

Hopefully, you will come back soon.

Bye bye
