Life Sciences

As a premier legal recruitment partner in the life sciences sector, Larson Maddox offers comprehensive services placing mid-level to executive level counsels and support staff.

We cater to a diverse clientele ranging from start-up biotechs to global pharmaceutical companies. Our industry-specific approach means that we are immersed solely in the life sciences attorney talent pool, leading to quality candidates delivered with an excellent time-to-fill.

“

Larson Maddox did an exceptional job as an exclusive partner with me on a very specific and high-level legal position. As someone who has done legal recruiting for 10+ years, I was extremely impressed with their understanding of the position and what we sought in a candidate. The pharmaceutical space in particular can be a very complicated area to recruit for even with a legal background. They found us an outstanding candidate.

Senior Recruiter,
Global Pharmaceutical Company
