The Board has reviewed the final draft Plan and their feedback, along with proofreading changes and te reo title translations will be incorporated over the coming days. The draft Plan is on track for completion ahead of its launch on 25 June.

The supporting Cabinet Paper, for discussion at the Cabinet Business Committee (CBC) meeting on 16 June (ahead of Cabinet meeting on 23 June), has been finalised and lodged following Ministerial consultation feedback. Changes include: adding more detail in the body of the paper about the IPP and the Pipeline which explains what project information will be included in the Plan; and adding more detail throughout to explain what is in the Draft Plan, and the technical and online information sitting behind it. We have also added two new appendices: full information on the IPP round 1 results and what we expect in round 2; and detail on the Pipeline and the table of 160 projects with value over $100m.

At the same time, we plan to publish reports that underpin aspects of the Plan, as well as the assessments of applications in Round One of the IPP (see below).
Public Agreement and Community Expectations (PACE) report	Report	25 June	This desktop review looks to answer two main questions: What are our communities’ expectations for infrastructure and its services, and how to pay for it? What are the public perceptions of the relative priorities of infrastructure and services problems and opportunities?
From plans to projects: Assessing how central government plans, funds, delivers, and manages infrastructure	Report	25 June	As part of our work to develop a National Infrastructure Plan, we want to understand whether current policy, regulatory and institutional settings are supporting central government to plan, select, and deliver infrastructure investments efficiently and effectively. To help us understand what’s working and where New Zealand could improve, we have assessed central government system settings against the ‘Public Investment Management Assessment’ (PIMA) framework developed by the International Monetary Fund (IMF) in 2015.
Infrastructure Needs Analysis (INA) draft results and technical papers, along with draft sector summaries	Report	25 June	This report will provide the draft results of the infrastructure needs analysis we are undertaking to best estimate our long-term infrastructure needs and compare them with current investment intentions to identify gaps and opportunities for recalibration and reforms.
Infrastructure Priorities Programme Round One Assessments	Reports	25 June	We will be publishing the reports for applications assessed in Round One. These reports will include scoring against assessment criteria, the rationale for scores given, and an assessment of investment readiness.
